Junior Red Cross Becoming More Active In Hancock County

This year the Junior Red Cross is becoming more active in the service of the local chapter than it has been in the past.

Junior Red Cross is a branch of the American Red Cross in schools, under the supervision of teachers and sponsors. It gives children an opportunity to be of service to their community and their nation and to the children of foreign lands.

Production of articles for hospitalized veterans is under way at Christ Church School, Taylor, Clermont Harbor and Bay High schools. Other schools in the county plan on engaging in this project shortly.

Every school in the county has participated in the annual Junior Red Cross Fund Drive, and Bay High School already has turned a Junior Red Cross Council with representatives from each grade serving on it.

"The Cat and the Canary" At Little Theater Tonight

"The Cat and the Canary," a spine-tingling melodrama liberally interspersed with chuckles, begins a three-night run at the Bay St. Louis Little Theater on Boardman Avenue tonight.

Under the capable direction of Mrs. Caroline Kiefer, the excellent cast turn in performances that are guaranteed to please the most critical audience.

The plot revolves around attempts to drive insane an heiress who must retain her sanity to retain her legacy.

The heirs are forced to spend the night in the house of an eccentric millionaire who died 20 years previously. And the provision in his will that his fortune will pass to another of his heirs if the beneficiary is not of sound mind leads to an attempt to take advantage of the stipulation.

"Mammy Pleasant," played by Imogene Allison, is a servant who served the old man until his death and who has remained in the old West mansion as housekeeper since that time. She sees and talks to spirits, and is a firm believer in voodoo.

Robert Lefler plays the part of Mr. Crosby, the attorney who summons the heirs to the reading of the will and who receives rather an unpleasant surprise.

Dr. Adrian "Buddy" Hava capably handles the role of "Harry Blythe," one of the heirs and determined suitor of the heiress.

"Susan Silby," played by Evelyn Griffith, is a disreputable person as one would ever hope to meet. She makes no secret of her belief that Annabelle West is insane.

Adele Husband plays the part of Mrs. Griffith, the attorney's wife, who tries to get Susan's vitriolic outbursts but without much success.

"Charlie Wilder," portrayed by Charles Kiefer, is an erstwhile suitor of Annabelle, and tries to regain her favor, especially since she is an heiress.

"Paul Jones" is played by Dr. Laurence Oden, who turns in one of the most amusing performances ever seen at the local theatre as the irresponsible, trembling hero.

"Hendricks," a guard from a nearby insane asylum, is played by Dr. John Husband, and he definitely makes the audience uneasy with his description of an escaped homicidal maniac who thinks he is a cat.

Miss Pat Gex has the lead role of "Annabelle West," and her hysterical screams of fear are hair-raising as she struggles to retain her sanity in a house of horrors.

"Dr. Patterson" is portrayed by Lloyd Griffith. When he examines Miss West neither she nor the audience is sure whether he is "with her or against her."

Adding materially to the impact of the thriller are the excellent stage settings and other endeavors of the technical staff—a job that is made doubly difficult due to the nature of the play.

Catherine Wilson and A. J. Thomas are in charge of stage settings; Philip Allison, stage manager and sound effects; Katie Riddle and Vicki Hill, props; Gertrude Saucier, makeup; Clara Kay Miller and Mrs. Walter Rausch, prompting; and Frances Day Jones, technical director.

Curtain is at 8:15 all three nights.

CPL. W. H. BANKS, 32, DIES AS CAR HITS TREE

Cpl. William Harvey Banks, 32, 1312 44th Ave., Gulfport, a native of Fenton, was instantly killed about 12:55 a.m. Monday when his 1950 Mercury left US Highway 90 and crashed into an oak tree on the lawn of Gulf Park College in Long Beach.

Harrison County Patrolman Claude Miller said Banks was going west on the Highway at a high rate of speed when the auto apparently hit the curb and careened about 60 feet into the tree.

The force of the collision spun the front of the auto toward the southeast, but it never overturned, Miller said. Bank's body was found about 10 feet west of the tree.

Policeman W. R. Lundy of Long Beach spotted the Mercury and left a parking bay to give chase. He saw dust and the wrecked auto after first running past it in his patrol car, according to Chief Robert Norwood Sr.

Banks was born in Fenton July 28, 1922 and was discharged from the US Army in April 1954. He was formerly with the 803 Military Police Service Company.

An inquest jury empaneled by Harrison County Coroner Frank Hightower about 4 a.m. at Reiman's Funeral Home, Gulfport, found Banks came to his death in an auto accident.

Funeral services were held Tuesday at 2 p.m. from Reiman's Funeral Chapel, Gulfport, with interment in Rotten Bayou Cemetery near Fenton.

Hancock County observed Veterans Day today with a mammoth parade and special ceremonies at the Court House. It was unquestionably the largest turnout of the crowd running from 1800 to several thousand.

A parade formed at Bay High School and terminated at the courthouse on main street, where special ceremonies were held.

Mayor John Scaife was parade marshal. Keeler Air Force Base furnished the color guard for the massed flags, and a contingent of 120 airmen marched in the parade. Also in the parade were Members of the American Legion and Auxiliary, Veterans of Foreign Wars, American Red Cross Volunteers, Boy and Girl Scouts, representatives of various civic organizations and units from the county school, including Four H, FFA, and FHA. The entire faculties of some schools marched with their students.

The entire student body of both Bay High School and St. Stanislaus marched in the parade, with the exception of the lower grades. Bands from both schools also took part.

Also participating was the student body of St. Joseph Academy.

County schools represented included Aaron Academy, Clermont Harbor, Kiln, Logtown, Sellers, Taylor, Waveland and Webb.

Ceremonies at the Courthouse included raising of a new American Flag given by Patton Favre as a representative of the surviving relatives of the late A. G. Favre. Accepting for the County was Johnson Shaw, president of the Board of Supervisors. The flag was raised by members of local Boy Scout troops.

General Louis Guerre served as Master of Ceremonies at the courthouse ceremonies. Principal speaker was Mark Solomon, a member of the local American Legion and a veteran of World War II. Also addressing the group was Ed S. (Ted) Perry, Governor of Boys State and President of Boys Nation.

The Bay High choral group sang three selections.

Each high school band played two numbers, and the National Anthem was played by the St. Stanislaus Band. Invocation was asked by the Rev. Hugh Taylor, and Benediction was said by the Rev. Schuyler Batson.

Approve Free Phone Service To Pass

The Mississippi Public Service Commission has approved a toll-free plan which recently was offered to the telephone users of Ocean Springs, Biloxi, Gulfport, Pass Christian and Bay St. Louis.

When the plan is put into effect, telephone subscribers will be able to call these in Pass Christian without a toll charge. Likewise, the telephone users of Pass Christian will be able to call Bay St. Louis and Gulfport, Gulfport will be able to call Biloxi and Pass Christian; Biloxi can call Gulfport and Ocean Springs; and Ocean Springs will be able to call Biloxi, with all such calls being toll free.

Since a substantial amount of equipment will be required to take care of the increased volume of calls between these exchanges, there will be some delay in making this plan effective. An announcement of the effective date will be made later.

Affirm Death In Hitch-hike Slaying Case

Mack Lewis, Negro, will die in the electric chair in Bay St. Louis Dec. 17 for the slaying of Kenneth L. Mason in April, 1953.

This will be the first execution held in Hancock County since 1929, when Silas Richardson was hanged after being convicted of murder. The hanging took place in the old jail. Jos. Jones was sheriff.

The State Supreme Court Monday affirmed the death sentence given Mack Lewis for the hitch-hike slaying of a New Orleans man in Hancock County and set Dec. 17 as his execution date.

Lewis, a Negro serviceman from Buffalo, N. Y., killed Kenneth L. Mason in April, 1953.

"It is here noted that the guilt of Lewis is manifest," the court said and dismissed his argument that he was insane when Mason was killed.

The court also overruled Lewis' arguments that he was arrested unlawfully and forced to make a confession.

Mason, a salesman traveling to Biloxi to meet his brother, picked up Lewis near New Orleans. After they entered Hancock County, Lewis pulled a gun and forced Mason to turn off on a dirt road.

The serviceman forced Mason out of the car "and told him to walk across the field," the court's decision said.

"When they were about 100 yards from the dirt road, and while Mason was facing Lewis, Mason was required to throw his wallet to Lewis."

"Lewis put the wallet into his pocket and after looking at Mason a few seconds, decided he would kill him."

"He shot Mason in the body; Mason grabbed his stomach and asked Lewis why he did it; then Lewis shot four more times; two of the shots took effect, one in the chest and one in the head. Mason was on the ground, and made no more sounds."

Lewis took Mason's car and traveled to Montgomery, Ala., Atlanta and Savannah, Ga., and was arrested near Petersburg, Va. for speeding.

Meanwhile, Mason's brother became alarmed when he failed to show up and notified police. New Orleans Officers brought Lewis back to Louisiana on a charge of stealing Mason's car.

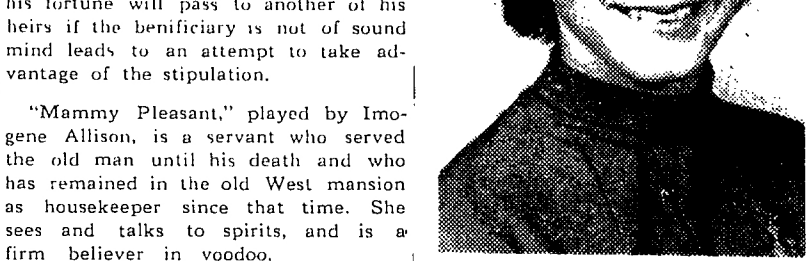

Later, Lewis confessed and showed where he killed Mason. When the body was found in Mississippi, Lewis was turned over to Hancock County officials.

The Supreme Court, in tossing out Lewis' argument that he was forced to make a confession, commented:

"We are of the opinion that there are few cases where a person charged with a crime has been given fairer or more moderate treatment."

"We commended the officers who had custody of the accused from the time he was delivered to (New Orleans Detectives) in Virginia until he was brought to trial. Even the accused testified he had received nothing but fair treatment."

The poppies are made by the veterans in the VA Hospitals in Gulfport, Biloxi and Jackson. The proceeds of the poppies sold by the Auxiliary are used to purchase Christmas gifts for the veterans and their families Elliott said.

Purchasing the Christmas gifts is the present project of the Auxiliary. The gifts are to be mailed no later than Nov. 15.

Legion Membership Drive Now Going Full Tilt

According to the latest release given out by Tom Bressler, Chairman of the Membership Committee of the Clermont B. Bontemps Post 129, 27 veterans have joined the local Post since the present drive was started a few days ago. These 27 members are really brand new members and do not include the many renewals of membership by old members, Bressler stated.

The quota of 350 members for the local post is the highest ever set by the State Legion Department and imposes a hard task on local Legionnaires, he said. "We had to overcome a heavy loss of members due to deaths and removals out of the County," Bressler added.

Three subcommittees have been named in the drive for members and dues may be paid to them as well as to Bressler or Commander Bourgoin at Waveland. The subcommittees are Warren (Buck) Buehler, Russell J. Elliott and John D. Rutherford.

Petition Status Quo

Attorneys representing petitioners for redistricting the county and a number of signees met with the Board of Supervisors and their attorney Monday and Tuesday mornings to determine the action of the Board regarding Judge Leslie Grant's recommendation that the certification of the original and supplemental petitions on redistricting be gone into anew.

Several spokesmen from the signees were heard by the Board at the meeting Monday, as well as attorneys Joel Blass and John Gardner, their legal advisers. They requested the Board members to act immediately.

Lucien Gex, attorney for the Board, declared that it would require time before the Clerk could properly and legally certify signees and qualified voters. The meeting was recessed until Tuesday morning.

On Tuesday morning the voice of the petitioners again was heard when several members of the group addressed the Board of Supervisors. A meeting was called by the Board for Monday, Nov. 15, by which time they will have employed the services of two impartial persons to check the registration books.

Controversy entered the picture over the legal right of the Board to call an election. Johnson Shaw, president of the Board, claimed that the Board is willing to call the election if the necessary 25 per cent of qualified voters are signees of the petition so that there will be no legal question in the future as to the authority of the Board in calling such an election.

Emergency Dime March Net Is $2,804.80

The Hancock County Chapter of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis is sending $1,402.40 in local March of Dimes funds to national headquarters of the polio organization to help meet the costs of polio care in counties where high incidence has exhausted chapter treasuries.

This is half of Hancock County's total collection of $2,804.80. Mrs. Theo Tudury, Chapter chairman, said the money was being sent in response to an appeal by Basil O'Connor, president of the National Foundation.

"We are happy to be able to help in this way," Mrs. Tudury said. "It means that so far, at least, this year has not been a bad polio year for us, and we want to assist those chapters that have added many new patients to their rolls."

The chairman explained that net receipts of the March of Dimes collection in Hancock County are shared by the local Chapter and the National Foundation's headquarters. The local share is used for payment of patient bills as needed. National headquarters uses its funds for polio prevention, research, professional education and emergency aid to chapters. "I want to thank each and every one who helped in any way to make this drive a success may God bless each of you," Mrs. Tudury said.

Rocks To Tangle With Tough Eagles This Friday Night

War Memorial Stadium in Pascagoula is the next scene of St. Stanislaus' football battling Friday, the Rocks will meet our Lady of Victories Eagles, who sport a 7-1 record.

OLV's only setback was their season opener with Notre Dame in which they lost 7-0 as the Rebels scored in the opening quarter. OLV later defeated Peraziano 13-20, Bay High 12-8, Grand Bay 34-12 and Pass Christian 25-0.

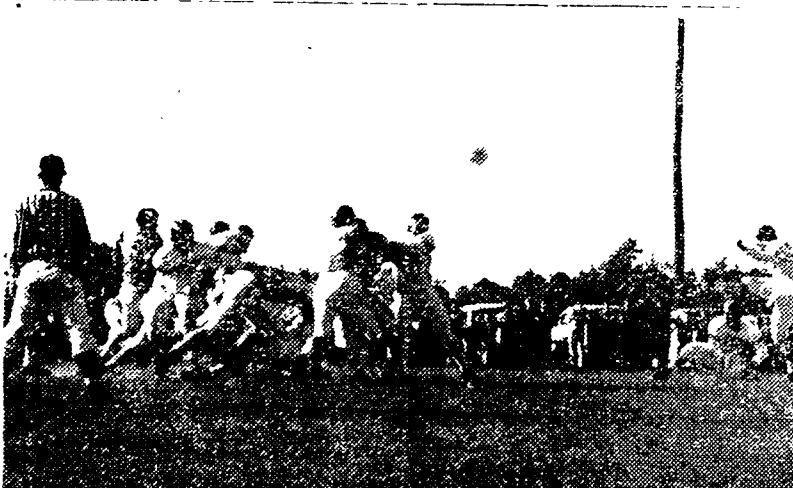

St. Stanislaus will enter the game with a 2-2-3 record to date. They have two straight upsets to their credit, with Biloxi falling 12-6 and McGill dying 26-6.

The Rockchaws were for the first time able to break their 12-point barrier which has cost them the last seven games. In Sunday's game they scored about half the total number of points they have in the previous 7 games.

OLV has a very impressive record but St. Stanislaus has finally found their range and will be tough on the Eagles.

A quick roundup of Rockchaw games to late shows: Foley, 12-9; Vigor, 6-1; Eliza, 12-6; De La Salle, 13-13; Moss Point, 6-7; Picayune, 6-13; Reserve, 34-12; and McGill, 26-6.

John Reed of New Orleans, a freshman at St. Stanislaus, was the TV set given away at halftime in the homecoming game here Sunday afternoon.

The Rockchaw line holds like a stone wall as Santa Cruz gets off an extra point kick in the Stanislaus-McGill Homecoming tilt Sunday. Kenny Artigues is holding.

Kiln Invitational Cage Tourney Starts Tonite

The annual Kiln Invitational Basketball Tournament begins at 7:00 tonight at the Kiln High gymnasium.

Cosch L. C. Ladner has announced that ten teams will be vying for the top honors.

The boys bracket will include L. n. n. Sellers, St. Joseph of Pass Christian and Kiln.

The girls will pair off Lynn Sellers, St. Joseph of Pass Christian, Long Beach and St. Joseph Academy. The Kiln lads are a heavy favorite to take their own tourney. With the exception of Clarence Lee, Kiln will have their all-star team of 1953 back last year Kiln won 32 while losing 2 games. They advanced to the Southern Division of Class B Mississippi State Basketball play.

However, the team will enter the tournament with very little practice. Coach Ladner said the team will be in fair shape for the game. He expects Larry Ladner to lead his squad with Russell Mitchell, Louis Gargia and Jason Mauffray aiding Coach Ladner said the Wildcats will be with out the services of Rex Stinson, who was injured early in the football season, for the next week or two, and until then Kiln will not be up to their peak of power.

"We're looking forward to a good season and are planning to win a lot of our games," Ladner told the EAGLE.

Stanislaus Wins Homecoming Game 26-6; Bay Hi Homecoming Friday

The St. Stanislaus football team celebrated their homecoming victory by grounding the ball 50 yards to the 10 yard line. The Yellow Jackets then began their drive and 9 plays later halfback Walter Santa Cruz sent another long kickoff to McGill, with the Yellow Jackets returning it to their own 33. They advanced to the 45, dropped back to the 48, and then got off their first successful punt that went to the Rocks 27 yard line.

A 15 yard penalty against McGill, a 12 yard jaunt by fullback Aldape and a 46 yard run by Woody Santa Cruz gave St. Stanislaus their last touchdown early in the final quarter. The extra point failed and SSC led 26-0.

Santa Cruz kicked off to McGill with the Alabama squad returning the ball to the 28. They went to the 32, lost 15, completed a 23 yard pass to the 40 yard line, but were later forced to punt. They got off a long high boot that went deep into Stanislaus territory. Kenny Artigues and Willy Rhodes were back for the kick but could not, and the ball went into the end zone.

Stanislaus was held to a small gain and Schexnayder punted up to just past the midfield stripe where Yellow Jacket halfback Harry Clark took the kick.

Stanislaus went straight through the entire Stanislaus team right down mid field, for a 52 yard TD punt. The extra point try failed and St. Stanislaus led 26-6.

SSC took the kickoff and returned it to their own 32. They began a long series of plunges and runs that were sparked by second string players. In 13 plays they were knocking for another touchdown on McGill's 7 yard line. The next play they went down to the 2. On the next three tries they were held for no gain at all and the Yellow Jackets took over on their own 2.

A quick 10-yard pass brought them out of their hole, but before they could get another play off the game ended.

NEW WORK-SAVERS On Mississippi Farms

Joining the now familiar mechanical cotton-picker for the first time this fall on many Mississippi farms is this piece of equipment which makes the harvesting of sorghums, grasses and other drought resistant crops easier, better, more economical.

TELEPHONE SERVICE is also helping rural Mississippians get more done in less time, enabling them to keep in touch with markets and neighbors. Today 45,000 farm homes and rural business houses in the state are served by Southern Bell, and the number is increasing fast.

TO GROW old to keep investors supplying the money for telephone expansion we must earn a fair profit on money invested in telephone property.

WILDCATS DOWNED 47-6 BY BILOXI FRIDAY

The Kiln Wildcats ended their first football season since 1943 Friday night when they fell to a powerful Notre Dame squad 47-6 in Biloxi.

Notre Dame scored at will while Kiln's only tally came in the final 2 minutes on a 78 yard march sparked mostly by quarterback Larry Ladner's quick passes to halfbacks Russell Mitchell and Cleveland Wyatt.

The Rebels scored three times in the opening quarter. Quarterback George Sekul pitched out to halfback Kenneth Marie who ran 15 yards for the first score. Six plays later Notre Dame again scored on the same play, but with Marie going 24 yards for the TD. Edut converted the extra point.

Still in the first stanza the Biloxi team again scored with Roy Ebberman going 50 yards through the Kiln line. Edut again converted and Notre Dame led 20-0 at the end of the first quarter.

Bel on the half ended, Notre Dame added another touchdown when they drove 72 yards in 10 plays. Marie chimaxed the drive by going around only 14 36 yards. Edut's placement made the score 27-0.

The Kiln eleven were weakening but came back in the second half to hold the Rebels to two scores while they tallied once themselves.

Two minutes deep in the third quarter, Sekul sneaked 13 yards over right tackle to climax a 42 yard drive. Edut's kick again was good and made the score 33-0.

Sekul returned a Kiln punt a few minutes later to the Wildcats' 26 yard line and two plays later, with Fallo going 20 yards on a pitchout, Notre Dame had scored again. Edut's extra point made the score 40-0. Notre Dame's final score was added at the end of a 50 yard drive when quarterback Joe Gill passed to Henry Lawrence who completed the 40 yard distance for the score. Lawrence completed the Rebel scoring with his extra point to bring the score to 47-0.

The final minutes of play belonged to the Kiln Wildcats as they began their long march to score.

Cleveland Wyatt returned the kickoff to his own 22. After 14 plays, four of them passes from Ladner to Russell Mitchell and Wyatt, Ladner chimaxed the 78 yard drive by going over from the one. Mitchell's attempt at the extra point failed.

However, the Biloxi team wasn't finished. In the two minutes remaining they went across the goal line once more, only to have the play called back because of a penalty. The last play ended the game with Notre Dame winning 47-6.

Kiln ended their season with a 3.5 record under the coaching of L. C. Ladner. It was the first Wildcat football team in 12 years.

Yellow Jackets Sting Pass Shamrocks 45-23

J Lee Northrop led a swarm of Yellow Jackets in a stinging attack that turned the St. Joseph Shamrocks from green to rosy red. The Irish lads suffered an ignoble 45-23 defeat at the hands of the Lyman forwards Thursday night at the Pass Christian gymnasium.

Held to less than 10 field goals, St. Joseph was never able to come close to the Yellow Jackets.

Northrop dropped in 16 points, and with Edgar Wil's 10 points they alone were enough to dampen the Shamrocks. Vernon Garriga and Wayne James each netted 9 points to lead the Pass squad.

The Colleens proved a closer match to Lyman but failed to keep a first half lead and faltered 39-35. Mildred Logan took the night's scoring crown by hitting for 18 points. She and Sheila Bradley, who tallied 10, scored all but three of their team's points.

High scorers from the Lyman lasses were Ann Loftis and Hazel Saucier, who hit for 16 and 14 points respectively.

Both Lyman cagers have a 4-2 record.

Picayune's gridders scored three quick touchdowns in the opening period to stun the McDonough Trojans of New Orleans 40-25, in their gridiron meeting Friday night in Picayune.

Fullback Glen Watts was the wooden horse as he supplied the fight for the Maroon Tide by going for three touchdowns.

Picayune led 26-12 at halftime. The entire second half was close, with Picayune showing a one-point edge in second half scoring.

Both squads scored in every quarter. Picayune now has a 4-2 record and 1 tie.

KILN SLUGHTERS RAMS IN BASKETBALL OPENER

The Kiln Wildcats opened their cage season with a slaughtering twin victory over the Woolmarket Rams at the Kiln gymnasium Tuesday night.

Russell Mitchell and Larry Ladner led the Wildcats to an 85-31 victory over the hapless Rams.

Mitchell dropped in 20 points and Ladner added 15. Kiln took a quick and commanding lead in the opening quarter with the two stars hitting the nets and giving the Wildcats an early 26-6 lead.

Louis Garriga and Jason Mauffray began to add their sharpshooting skill to the free-for-all, and by halftime Kiln led 59-11.

After stacking up a 81-20 lead the Wildcat first string left the court and let the younger boys finish the final period.

KILN HAPPENINGS

The second issue of the school paper, The Chatterbox, came out this week and proved to be of great interest to the student body.

The football players of Kiln are looking forward to measuring up this week for their jackets.

There were quite a number of people from Kiln school who journeyed to Baton Rouge last week to see the LSU-OLE MISS football game.

Attending the basketball game at Sellers between Sellers and Orange Grove were Coach L. C. Ladner, Larry Ladner, J. W. Bilbo, Bobby Bilbo, Huey Henley, Huey Curet and Russell Mitchell.

Royce Shiyou's collarbone has healed and he is expected to play in the basketball tournament this week end.

With the hustling of Mrs. Gaudet, Kiln has added a large and interesting collection of books to the school library.

Kiln's Hill-Billy Band, composed of Oren Bounds, Dalton Sones, Marvin Ladner and Kenny Ladner, is going to play in the FFA string band contest which will be held in the FFA home in Long Beach sometime this month.

The Junior Class is currently rehearsing for their Class Play, SKINNED ALIVE, to be presented the first part of December.

J. W. Bilbo, Larry Ladner, Bobby Bilbo, Huey Henley, Russell Mitchell and Howell Crouch journeyed to New Orleans last Wednesday to see about arranging for a band to play for their Thanksgiving dance.

Annie May Peterson spent the week end in Picayune with Naomi Moran.

Mr. and Mrs. Tip Necaise had as their guest over the week end Mr. and Mrs. Earl Necaise and family of Gulfport.

Mary Evelyn Necaise spent last week-end with her parents in Gulfport.

The Senior class of Kiln is very happy to welcome Vernon Ladner and Joseph Moran back to school here. Vernon was formerly a student at Saint Stanislaus. Joe was in the US Army for the last two years.

There was a large crowd on hand for Kiln's first basketball game. Both of the Wildcats teams were victorious. The girls won over the Woolmarket ladies by a score of 33-28. The boys won by a score of 27-31. Kiln's next game will be with Saint Joseph of Pass Christian in their invitational tournament Thursday night.

Guard Unit Recruiting

Draft-age youths of Hancock County can have their cake and eat it, according to Lt. Irvin Kingston, Commanding Officer of the newly formed National Guard unit here.

In appealing to members of the Clement R. Bontemps Post 139, Lt. Kingston pointed out that while most Legionnaires were too old to join the new Guard outfit here that most of them did have sons who would soon be eligible for the draft and that those sons may stay here as long as they are active members of the National Guard.

The National Guard is not a draft-dodging organization but an organization designated to prepare young men to be of service to the Community, State and Nation whenever needed, Kingston said. Young men are exempted from the draft because draft officials recognize the need of organized military forces in every locality in the nation. These members of the National Guard are available in cases of violence, storms, disaster or protection of the public upon immediate notice, Kingston explained.

The National Guard meets once a week in the evening, and members will receive a full day's pay for attending, Kingston said.

If a young man decides to enlist in the regular military forces he can take his National Guard rating with him and thereby get a decided jump on regular draftees, Lt. Kingston pointed out. National Guard duty, even though on a once-a-week basis, will count for full time in computing retirement and other benefits, the commanding officer declared.

emy, Saint Joseph School of Pass Christian, Long Beach. Boys teams are Kiln, Lyman and St. Joseph School.

Mrs. T. H. Deschamps and Lurster Deschamps visited Mr. and Mrs. Purvis Deschamps and family Sunday.

Loretta Necaise and Earline Deschamps spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Rogers and daughter, Elaine, of Long Beach.

Members of the senior class have selected their class play for this year. The name of it is "A Feuding Over Yonder."

The photographer will be here at school next week to take pictures for the year book.

The painting of all the class rooms has just about been completed and the school has a brighter and more interesting appearance.

L. C. Ladner issued this past week the checks for the exhibits placed in the school fair. He also expressed hope that we will have a bigger and better fair each year.

Harold Banks, former student at Kiln, was killed Monday morning in an automobile wreck near Gulfport. His burial was held at Rotten Bayou Cemetery Tuesday evening at 2 p.m.

The Seniors are working very hard to make this year's year-book the best Kiln has ever had.

The Senior class is sponsoring a dance, box supper and cake walk. Thanksgiving night. Music will be furnished by Red Smith from WBOK, Bill Casen and his Arkansas Troopers.

The Kiln Pee Wees will journey to Bartlett, Miss. Tuesday night. This will be their last game of the season. Their record is now one win against one loss.

The Kiln Varsity football team played their last football game of the season last Friday night against Notre Dame of Biloxi. They were defeated by one of the finest teams on the coast by a score of 47-6. This game was Notre Dame's Homecoming game. Kiln's record this past season was 3 wins against 5 losses.

The Kiln High School is entering the Armistice Day Parade in Bay St. Louis Thursday morning. A big turnout is expected by Mr. Ladner.

All students interested in taking string music lessons at Kiln may see Mr. Ladner for information.

Arrangements are being made for the Seniors of Kiln to go to Gulfport to have their senior pictures made.

The journalism class, under the supervision of their teacher, Mrs. Gertrude Hall, are mimeographing and plan to distribute this week a small bulletin containing all of the highlights pertaining to Bay High's Homecoming festival scheduled for Friday night. News about the football game with Lucedale, with up-to-the-minute dope on scores and ratings of both teams; personal interview with Homecoming Queen Shirley Ann Bufkin; announcement about the captain and co-captains of the team and names of the girls in the Homecoming court; a short vignette into the past and present history of the Class of 1930 are included.

The bulletin is an entirely new innovation in the school, published by the class for this event. Copies will be given to the students Friday and since it is believed that spectators at the football game Friday night would enjoy the contents, copies will be given to all those who attend. Students who have worked to make this venture a success are Robert Bing, Janet Breland, Hilda Russell, Clayton Adam, Beverly James and Darling Normand.

The Bay High Peewees and Juniors will play the St. Paul teams from Covington at Stanislaus Stadium Saturday afternoon beginning at one o'clock. St. Paul will be out to avenge a 55-0 loss to the Bay Juniors earlier this year. The Peewees tied 6-6 at St. Paul.

Homecoming will be held at Bay High Friday, November 12. The football game will be crowned at the half of the football game between Bay High and Lucedale. After the game there will be a Homecoming dance in the gymnasium at Bay High.

The Bay High Tigers are working hard for their game with Lucedale Friday night. The team is in good condition barring injuries for this week.

Billy and Jerry Thomas, twin sons of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Thomas, celebrated their birthdays November 4 with a big party in their third grade room. Delicious refreshments were served by their Mother and Grandmother.

Prizes were won by Elaine Miller and Ed Estapa.

One of these projects will be the installation of fluorescent lights in the classrooms and the painting of the classrooms and hallways, also, band rooms and gymnasium. This work will be very slow due to the fact that it can only be done when students are not in
